SUNDAY

IF—If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways.

THEN—Then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.—2 Chronicles 7:14

MONDAY

IF—If thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul:

THEN—Then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday; and the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones.—Isaiah 58: 10, 11.

TUESDAY

RICHES DO NOT SATISFY—He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity. When goods increase, they are increased that eat them; and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? Ecclesiastes 5: 10, 11.

WEDNESDAY

RULER OVER ALL—Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.—Chronicles 29: 11

THURSDAY

THE LAWYER'S QUESTION.—Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

JESUS' ANSWER—Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. This do and thou shalt live.—Luke: 10: 25, 27, 28.

FRIDAY

USE HEAVENLY BANKS—Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. For where your treasure is there will your heart be also.—Matthew 6: 19-21.

SATURDAY

REMEMBER THE POOR—If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail; or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof; if I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering; then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.—Job 31: 16, 17, 19, 21.

STRIKE SITUATION.

The bituminous operators have accepted the proffered settlement of President Harding to return to work. Not all the operators accept it, but the larger number did. The miners are not expected to accept it and it may result in the government extending armed aid to the operators in their efforts to resume operation.

In the rail strike conditions on the whole would seem to be rather worse than better. The rail worker heads and the labor board are still in conference and hope is expressed by both sides that a way will be found for settlement.

The rail heads claim that many men returned to work in time to save themselves from loss of seniority rights.

JEWETT

Childrens Day was observed here Sunday with a good program prepared by the children and good talks from older people, which were very interesting. A bountiful dinner, a large crowd and good order.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hinch are planning to go to Cowan, to visit their son, Ernest, this week and will also visit relatives at Jasper on the way.

Leola Burnett and family, of Jasper, were here visiting relatives recently. Lee Sherrill, of Burke, spent Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. Steward Hinch.

The Bible School will continue this week with Mrs. Robertson as teacher. A. B. Sherrill and wife and son from Crab Orchard are visiting relatives here.
July 17. XX.

Be a Booster; Never Be a Knocker.

Some people take great pleasure in treading on the corns of other people. The true man or woman would rather give the duffer a good corn remedy free.

er from Adamsford last Wednesday.

Our Childrens Day exercises passed peaceably and quiet everybody enjoyed the day fine.

TRADE WITH YOUR LOCAL MERCHANT--IT PAYS BIG

You See His Goods Before You Buy;
and Sure.

There is a principle involved in every transaction and that principle should be observed. There is a right and a wrong position to take. If it is right for the consumers to send their money to the catalog houses for their merchandise, they should do so, but if it is wrong, they should not do it.

I will take for example one of our hardware merchants in Hot Springs, Arkansas, to prove that people should buy from their home merchants instead of sending their money away. In the twenty-four years he has been in business, he has introduced and sold a great many mowers and rakes on one, two and three years' time, which encouraged the farmers to increase their meadows and make the cost of the mower in hay before they had to pay for it.

He has sold more than a thousand two-horse wagons at $10.00 down and $10.00 per month to men who had teams and no wagons and not enough money to pay all down for a few one. They were enabled to make the wagon pay for itself as the payments came due.

When the government farm demonstrator was trying to introduce hog cholera serum into this country to prevent hog cholera, it was difficult matter to get the farmers to send away for it, and this man kept it in stock and furnished it to the farmers exactly at cost in order to get them to use it and save their hogs, which they did.

Introduces Labor-Saving Devices.

He was the first man to introduce commercial fertilizer into his section, and was told at the time by some that he was doing the country a great injury by selling the people fertilizers.

He manufactured, introduced and sold one of the first home canners for canning fruits and vegetables.

He has introduced many improved farm implements that have helped the farmers make more money, and many household and kitchen furnishings, gas, wood and coal ranges, which have proved a blessing to hundreds of overworked women on our farms.

He has made it possible for people to look at all these things before purchasing, and when introducing, has placed his personal guarantee behind them agreeing to take them back if not entirely satisfactory.

Gives Personal Guarantee.

A personal guarantee from a local merchant means a great deal more to the consumer than a guarantee from some catalog house in some far-distant city.

This man that I refer to has erected one of the largest and best store buildings in the city and is a director in one of the banks, which has erected a six-story building. He is president of the school board, which has put up one of the best high school buildings in the South, and several modern ward-school buildings.

He is a good-roads advocate, and is a builder. He is now erecting one of the largest garage buildings in that section of the country. In addition to giving employment in his hardware business to heads of twenty-five or more families who are prospering, he is making room for still more. The profits on the merchandise he sells go to paying salaries, to charity, to the erection of new buildings, the improving of streets, roads and schools. His state and county taxes amount to more than $3,000, besides his income tax, and it is estimated that he pays salaries, taxes and rents amounting to $55,000 per annum.

Suppose our people had sent all the money that has passed through his hands to catalog houses, what would we have to show for it? And this is just one of many men who have made success of merchandising in Hot Springs. And the greater portion of their success has gone into the up-building of our city and country.

He Helps Build Up the Community

This man has been directly connected with and largely responsible for the erection of school, bank, store and residence buildings at an aggregate cost of nearly a million dollars. He has given back to the city and country service of far more value than he has taken from it, and I want to ask this question: Has it paid this community to do business with this man, or would this country have been better off had all this money been sent to the catalog houses? Can you think of a merchant in your town who has not given back to the community as much or more than he has taken from it?

How would you like to have all the merchants in your town go out of business, thereby forcing you to buy all your farm implements, wagons, hardware, stoves, ranges, dry goods, clothing, shoes, groceries, etc., from the catalog houses? Is it not a fact that a great many of our people use the local merchants for convenience and buy staple articles from them and sent away for the profit-bearing goods because they think they are saving a few pennies? The truth of the whole matter is the people do not think ahead. They are trying to save a few cents a day at a cost to themselves, their families, and to the communities of many thousand dollars in the future.

This man that I refer to has begged the farmers to buy improved implements and to improve their hogs, cattle and poultry, paint their houses and keep their wagons and implements under shelter, to raise their own feed and food, raise more sheep and goats and less dogs, and is now helping to establish a marketing place and cotton yard so the farmers may have a place to store their cotton and obtain the highest market prices for their products. Do you know of any catalog houses trying to help anybody except themselves?

Why Do They Do It?

What I want is for someone to tell me why they send their money to catalog houses for anything they can buy at home. A person who patronizes catalog houses is willing to trust strangers with his money and trust the stranger's word, and wait patiently for the goods to be shipped. One of these fellows would not think of paying a local merchant in advance for anything; neither would he take the local merchant's word, but to the contrary, he must see the articles and have the local merchant's personal guarantee before he will buy it, and then, to cap it all, will often ask the merchant to charge it for thirty or sixty days. Some difference!

Can You Go to the Catalog House for Help?

When crop failures come, and you are out of work, who do you go to for help? Catalog houses? Who buys your produce? Who buys your pork, beef, corn and produce? Catalog houses? Who helps pay your preacher, and helps to build church and school houses? Who helps pay the taxes and who helps you or your neighbor when in distress? Catalog houses? They would laugh you to scorn if you would ask them for assistance. Your local merchant, as a rule, has a family of boys and girls, and his employees also have boys and girls, and these boys and girls marry in your community. Have you ever seen any catalog house boys and girls? Your boys and girls would remain single until they were as old as Methuselah if they had to wait for catalog houses to send them a companion. In fact, wouldn't this country be in one hell of a fix if we had to look altogether to catalog houses for all our needs? Then why not look entirely to our home merchants to supply our many wants?

CAN YOU ANSWER?

Where can a man buy a cap for his knee,
Or a key to the lock of his hair?
Can his eyes be called an academy
Because there are pupils there?

In the crown of his head what gems
are found?

Who travels the bridge of his nose?
Can he use, when whirling the roof
of his mouth,
The nails on his toes?

Can the crook of his elbow be sent
to jail,
If so, what did it do?

How does he sharpen his shoulder
blades,
I'll be hanged if I know, do you?

Can he sit in the shade of the palm
of his hand,
Or beat on the drum of his ear?

Does the calf of his leg eat the corn
on his toes?

If so, why not grow corn on the ear?—Selected.

MAMMA'S PARTNER

A sturdy little girl it was trudging bravely by with a pail of water. So many times had she passed our gate that morning that curiosity prompted us a further acquaintance.

"You're a busy little girl today."

"Yes'm."

The round face under the broad hat
was turned towards us. It was freckled, flushed, and perspiring, but cheerful
withal.

"Yes'm, but it takes a heap of water
to do a washing."

"And do you bring it all from the brook down there?"

"Oh, we have it in the cistern mostly."

"And there is nobody else to carry the water?"

"Nobody but mother, an' she is washing."

"Well, you are a good girl to help her."

It was not a well considered compliment,
but the little water carrier did not consider it one at all; there was a look of surprise in her gray eyes and an almost indignant tone in her voice as she answered:

"Why, of course I help her. I always help her all the time; she hasn't anybody else. Mother'n me's partners."

Little girls, are you and mother partners? Do you help her all you can?

WATERMAN FOUNTAIN PENS

If you have never used a fountain pen, you do not know what you have missed in pen comfort and convenience. If you have used a fountain pen, you very likely know that WATERMAN is the last word in fountain pens. A good stock of them on hand all the time at the CHRONICLE OFFICE.
